Arrivée en Saskatchewan en 2020, Isabelle remporte le prix du public lors du tremplin musical “Nouvelle Scène”, en 2021 avec ses compositions originales. Depuis, elle cumule les prestations dans divers événements aux quatre coins de la province. Ses chansons pop-country humoristiques accompagnées de numéros d’humour font-elle d’elle une humoriste ou une chansonnière? Les deux!

Arriving in Saskatchewan in 2020, Isabelle won the audience award during the musical springboard “Nouvelle Scene”, in 2021 with her original compositions. Since then, she has performed at various events across the province. Do her humorous pop-country songs accompanied by humorous numbers make her a comedian or a singer? Both!

Chiki Lora at the EARC

Date and Time: Sunday, February 4 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 142 12 Street West, Prince Albert, SK

Chiki Lora was born in Malaga in 1982, when Spain was putting on his Naranjito boots for the Football World Cup. He grew up in Madrid, and his bones and songs finally settled down in the Basque Country. He was born as a world traveler musician, and the thousands of miles traveled for many years as a member of Canteca de Macao – a band where he was composer, singer, and guitarist - have come to place Chiki Lora in a haven of peace in his solo career, that has started recently.

Back in 2016, the heart and soul of Canteca de Macao for 15 years together with Anita Kuruba, decided to start his solo career and release an album with El Volcan Musica. Sumando (Add Up) – a perfect name for an artist that does not know about deductions – was born from the need of the artist to keep on communicating through his music. “A bunch of songs that needed to see the light”, as said in the artist's own words.

He surrounded himself with great musicians and better friends for that first album. El Canijo de Jerez, Javi Cantero, Tomasito, his soul sister Anita Kuruba or Juanito Makandé were just a few of the names taking part in it. The results of this first solo experience were great, Sumando was considered one of the top ten world music albums for Mondosonoro magazine. He offered a tour with more than 50 shows and visited countries such as Cuba, Slovenia, Hungary and United States.

It's not surprising that he named his second album Ura, a Basque word meaning water. A name that fits Chiki perfectly, because he is as natural and unpredictable as water is. He's not tied to any genre, but drinks a bit of all of them. No barriers can stop him, he flows freely through them. Just like water he can both be a strong torrent or a placid flow, he can raft among the rapids of a river, or swim peacefully in a placid lake.

Drop-In Saskatchewan Aboriginal Storytelling Month Event – Mini Art and Storytelling Workshop - Presented by Guest Storyteller Harmony Johnson-Harder

Date and Time: Tuesday, February 6 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: 152 12th Street East Prince Albert, SK

You are invited to this unique storytelling session by Harmony Johnson-Harder featuring a mini art and storytelling workshop based on the story "Kookum Magic."

Participants will create their own story stick using objects, colours and symbols inspired by the presentation.

This takes place at the Prince Albert Public Library.

Harmony Johnson is an artist, producer and a creative. She has been creating for as long as she can remember. Her first inspirations were, sewing and beading with her grandmother, sitting on her father's lap watching him draw, and the water colour paint set her mother bought her at 10 years old. Her art weaves symbolism, storytelling, and her world view as an indigenous woman into vibrant powerful images. Harmony's medium of choice in the past has been oil and acrylic paint but has expanded into fabric and mixed media. She is an Expressive Arts Facilitator and yoga teacher and is currently leading arts, yoga, and culture programming in various community locations. She is also expanding into film and writing. You can find her work on her Facebook and Instagram pages "Down to Earth Expressive Arts & Yoga."

Drop-in - No Registration Required! Appropriate for ages 10+ to Adults. Everyone is welcome!

Registered school students invited to daytime sessions. Funding provided by Library Services for Saskatchewan Aboriginal Peoples Inc.

Daryl Sexsmith Author Reading

Date and Time: Thursday, February 8 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Prince Albert Public Library 125-12th Street East, Prince Albert, SK

Daryl Sexsmith Author Reading. Always Another River. Thursday, February 8, 7:00pm. John M. Cuelenaere Branch of Prince Albert Public Library,

Rory Gardiner at the EARC

Date and Time: Thursday, February 8 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 142 12 Street West, Prince Albert, SK

After a tornado wiped out his neighborhood, Rory Gardiner started making funny videos to give his family and neighbours something to smile about. His first video went viral and eventually led to a TEDx talk. When the world went into lockdown, he amplified that humor virality to the rest of the world through 30+ million views on TikTok and other platforms.

Audiences will be treated to original songs on the subjects of what Rory has learned by almost losing his family in a natural disaster, as well as modern day problems of someone in their 30's-40's navigating kids & marriage through a pandemic and beyond. This crowd engaging one man show has been described as "a hilariously musical TED Talk on Steroids!"

Loving Leofric: A Love Story - a Valentine's Medieval Feast

Date and Time: Friday, February 9 6:00 pm

Address: Shanigan's Coffee & Dessert Bar - 2144 6th Ave West, Prince Albert, SK

The team who brought you the sold out comedy dinner experience "An Awkward Family Christmas" is back with another interactive comedy event just in time for Valentine's Day: a medieval feast of comic delight!

THE EVENT...

Shanigan's Bistro, Coffee & Dessert Bar will host a catered decadent 4-course meal a la carte while Off the Cu ff Improv & Interactive will provide a medieval interactive comedy masterpiece. Proudly supported by Saskatchewan Seniors Fitness Association - Lakeland District!

THE STORY...

There is one kingly duty that Leofric cannot be allowed to shirk, and that's giving his kingdom an heir. Unsurprisingly, no one has yet fallen in love with him so it's time to find a wife the old-fashioned way: accept applications from foreign royal families. Enter Princess Maud of Gorizia, who is...interesting. When Maud arrives at Leofric's castle, she's ready to be wedded and bedded immediately. Leofric, far from enthusiastically embracing his willing wife-to-be, is terrified of his intended and makes every attempt to escape.

Alice and Albert must form an unlikely alliance to ensure that this royal marriage takes place. Their mission: to tame a wild foreign princess and soothe a skittish and inexperienced king so the two of them can find a common middle ground and get married before it's too late. (Well, before the night is over, at any rate).

Calamity Jane est un personnage mythique de l'époque du Wild West. Aventureuse et intrépide, c'est une femme qui aimait les hommes, l'alcool et l'odeur de la poudre à canon. Le groupe La légende de Calamity Jane évoque en chanson toute la poussière, l'ardeur et la survie du glorieux temps des Saloons et tire son chapeau à Calamity Jane, une femme moderne avant son temps. À mi-chemin entre le country de bandit et le western-alternatif de hors-la-loi, La légende de Calamity Jane s'appuie sur des textures de guitares rouillées et des harmonies vocales qui décochent plus vite que leurs ombres.

Depuis plus de trente ans, les sœurs Michelle et Annette Campagne déploient leur complicité musicale et aiguisent leurs harmonies singulières, que ce soit avec les groupes cultes Folle Avoine et Hart Rouge ou encore en solo dans leurs carrières respectives. Le tandem familial prend de l'expansion avec l'ajout du guitariste et réalisateur émérite André Lavergne : un franc-tireur hors pair.

Calamity Jane is a mythical character from the Wild West era. Adventurous and intrepid, she was a woman who loved men, alcohol and the smell of gunpowder. The group The Legend of Calamity Jane evokes in song all the dust, ardor and survival of the glorious days of Saloons and takes its hat off to Calamity Jane, a modern woman before her time. Halfway between gangster country and outlaw alternative western, The Legend of Calamity Jane relies on rusty guitar textures and vocal harmonies that shoot faster than their shadows.

For more than thirty years, sisters Michelle and Annette Campagne have deployed their musical complicity and honed their unique harmonies, whether with the cult groups Folle Avoine and Hart Rouge or even solo in their respective careers. The family tandem is expanding with the addition of guitarist and emeritus producer André Lavergne: an unrivaled maverick.

Coldest Night of the Year Prince Albert

Date and Time: Saturday, February 24 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm

Address: 888 Central Avenue, Prince Albert, SK

The Coldest Night of the Year is a winterrific, family-friendly walk that raises money for charities serving hungry, homeless, and hurting people in our community. On February 24th, cities across Canada will be participating in the walk, but the funds raised go right back into the community they were raised in! The funds support YWCA Prince Albert directly, so that we can continue our mission of ending homelessness in the community.

The walk has a few different lengths to choose from, so it's accommodating for everyone. What are you waiting for? Register at the included link to walk and fundraise for good!

The Great Canadian Roadtrip at the EARC

Date and Time: Wednesday, February 28 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 142 12 Street West, Prince Albert, SK

Since forming in 1994, award-winning country duo Doc Walker, composed of Chris Thorsteinson and Dave Wasyliv, has become one of Canada's most beloved country music acts. Over nearly three decades, the pair has won a JUNO Award, 14 Canadian Country Music Association Awards, and had 21 Top 10 Canadian country radio singles, eight #1 CMT videos, and millions of streams.

Doc Walker's unshakable creative partnership and drive to explore new musical approaches has remained since the 2001 release of their breakthrough album, Curve. The duo is excited to share their new music and classic hits with fans again as they prepare to return to the stage this fall.

"So you're saying we get to go on a cross-Canadian roadtrip with two absolutely legendary artists that we are massive fans of?! Please refrain from pinching us until it's over," says Dave Wasyliv of Doc Walker.

"I've had the privilege of touring with some of the most iconic acts in country music over the years and I am so excited to continue that journey with the announcement of The Great Canadian Roadtrip Tour," says Chris Thorsteinson of Doc Walker. "Michelle Wright and Jason McCoy are true legends, and we are honoured to be part of such an amazing lineup,"

Two-time CCMA Male Vocalist of the Year award winner Jason McCoy is also eager to perform on The Great Canadian Roadtrip tour. As a 25-year veteran of the entertainment industry and frontman of one of the best-selling bands in Canadian country music history, The Road Hammers, Jason appears to be the king of reinvention. Since setting out at the age of 19 to follow his own path to stardom, Jason has racked up multiple CCMA and CMA awards along the way in addition to a Gold-certified album and CMA Global Artist Award (Nashville CMA).

Ever-engaging and entertaining, Jason has become an all-round entertainer, from voicing the nationally syndicated Country Radio show Sounds Canadian (2007-2010), to stepping in front of the camera as host of Smashtown (CMT Canada/USA), two seasons of CMT's Pet Heroes (2010/2011), and Jason McCoy Eats America.

"This tour will be a non-stop hit after hit each night. I love Canada, I love country music, and I love touring with my friends, but most of all, I love the fans who are going to make this an epic Canadian Roadtrip!" says Jason McCoy.

Also joining the tour's epic lineup is one of Canada's most recognized and awarded female country singers, Michelle Wright. In 1992 she became the first Canadian artist in the modern era of country music to have a Top 10 hit in America, a #1 video on CMT-USA, and to win a major US music industry award (the Academy of Country Music Top New Female Vocalist Award in 1992).

Michelle has graced concert stages around the world and accepted more than forty major awards, including her 2011 induction into the Canadian Country Music Hall of Fame. In 2022, she released her latest studio project, Milestone and celebrated the 30th anniversary of her hit album, Now & Then.

"I'm so excited to be touring across Canada with Doc Walker and Jason McCoy," says Michelle Wright. "It's going to be a wonderful night of music, and I can't wait to share the stage with my friends and bring this show to fans across the country!"
