Coffee & Conversation with George Glenn

Date and Time: Friday, April 4 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: Margo Fournier Arts Centre, 1010 Central Avenue, Prince Albert SK

As part of the exhibition Looking Through Time, which celebrates 50 years of artwork by George Glenn, we invite you to weekly Coffee & Conversation with George. Chat about art, the exhibition, and the developments and consistencies that emerge over a span of 50 years of artmaking.

This is also an opportunity to purchase artworks from the exhibition.

These casual gatherings will take place on Fridays from March 14th to April 17th at the John V. Hicks Gallery (Margo Fournier Arts Centre, 1010 Central Avenue).

More information about this exhibition:

In 1975, George Glenn rode the bus from Regina to Prince Albert. Fresh from his graduate studies in Cincinnati and a year in France, he was about to embark on an artist residency in north-central Saskatchewan. The residency was supported by the Saskatchewan Arts Board (now SK Arts) and was to be one year in length. After a warm welcome to Prince Albert by Margreet van Walsem, George grew to become a formative presence in the fine arts community. His one-year residency has stretched to five decades. In this time he has developed a distinct visual language, steeped in a contemplation of meaning created by the relationships between the objects, landscapes, and spaces in his life.

This exhibition brings together paintings, drawings, and installation pieces that George has created in the past 50 years. It shows not only the development in his thinking, but what has persisted in his practice: his inner sensitivity to beauty, space for the unseen, the nuanced conditions that affect ways of seeing, and the link between personal and global narratives. These considerations occur within the realm of experimentation, reflection, and observation in George's studio.

Curated by Jesse Campbell with support from SK Arts.

The artworks in this exhibition change on a weekly basis. Every Monday beginning on March 10, new artworks will be installed in the gallery to show connections and developments throughout George's practice. This website will be updated each week with images of the installations.

Cupid's Heart, Arts Major, and Selfish Bodies at Rock Trout

Date and Time: Saturday, April 5 7:00 pm - 11:55 pm

Address: 903 Central Avenue, Prince Albert, SK

Two of Edmonton's most popular indie-bands, Arts Major and Selfish Bodies, are set to perform in Prince Albert, along with the grungy alt-rock trio, Cupid's Heart. Arts Major, a group of seasoned musicians, sees their music as a way to gather together in temporary community formations, focusing on themes of mental health, love, and attachment. Selfish Bodies, a fresh voice in Indie Pop Rock, interweaves electronic and synthesized soundscapes with familiar guitar and rock sounds. Cupid's Heart, a quintessential power-trio, uses cello, electric guitar, drums, and low female vocals for a grungy alt-rock sound.

Tickets available online or at the door.

Easter Break Art Camp: Myths & Legends

Date and Time: Tuesday, April 22 9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: 142 12th St W, Prince Albert, SK

Easter Break Art Camp: Myths & Legends

April 22-25 (Tuesday - Friday)

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Mann Art Gallery

Ages: 7-12

Cost: $100 (all materials included)

This Easter break, young artists are invited to embark on a creative adventure into the world of Myths & Legends! Over four mornings, students will bring their own mythical creature to life, sculpting its form and designing the landscape it calls home. They'll create a large diorama, combining painting, sculpture, and mixed media techniques to build an imaginative world filled with legendary magic.

Guided by our experienced art instructor Lana Wilson, students will develop their skills in sculpture, painting, and more, all while exploring the rich storytelling traditions of myths and legends.

Limited spots available (max. 10 participants)!

Register now on our website to secure your child's place. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us—we'd be happy to help!

You've Seen This Show Before

Date and Time: Tuesday, April 22 7:00 pm

Address: Jam Street Shared Arts Space - 1026 1st Avenue West, Prince Albert

Join Saskatchewan's Youth Poet Laureate, Dash Reimer, as he uses spoken word poetry and hip hop, a guitar and a loop pedal to bring you on a journey as we explore all those cycles that we just can't seem to escape. In its base form 'you've seen this show before' is a ~50 minute show about the cycles we're stuck in, hope in an absurd world and caring for each other regardless. The show uses scripted poems, freestyle and multiple instruments in its entirety.

Dash Reimer is an artist and educator based out of Treaty 6 territory in Saskatoon. He is Saskatchewan's 5th Youth Poet Laureate. He works within the worlds of poetry and hip hop and has a decade of experience performing on stages across Turtle Island, North Africa, South Africa and Turkey. He is passionate about community care, grassroots neighborhood movements and baking his friends tasty treats. Dash has been an avid collaborator in playwriting, chapbook making, jazz combos, improv troupes, rap crews and everything in between.

Showtime: 7pm

$10 at the door. Advance tickets available at <https://www.ticketsource.us/write-out-loud/youve-seen-this-show-before-prince-albertpremiere-feat-laura-marshall-max-pahtayken/e-moambe>

"A Man Walks Into A Bar" by Rachel Blair

Date and Time: Thursday, April 24 7:30 pm

Address: The Spice Trail and Lounge Trishna - 2901 2nd Avenue West, Prince Albert

Live theatre at the Spice Trail? YES! Catch the show on April 24, 25, and 26 or May 1, 2, and 3!

Directed by: CARA STELMASCHUK
Woman/Jenny: ADREANNA GAREAU
Man/Steve: DAVE LOKINGER
Stage Manager: DANA STRAUSS
Producer: ADREANNA GAREAU
Production Assistant: ELLIOTT BYERS

SYNOPSIS:

Stop me if you've heard this one...

A woman, with the help of a man, nervously sets out to tell us all a joke: A man walks into a bar and meets a waitress. As they begin to perform the joke for the audience, lines between the performers and characters blur and a tense and funny standoff about gender and power emerges. Is the customer justified in thinking something will happen? Is the waitress justified to lie? Why are some things funny to her and insulting to him? Ownership of the story becomes a competition as the man and woman unpack every word and movement, catching each other out on their assumptions and contradictions as they inch towards the dark punchline.

TICKET INFORMATION:

$25, available at Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/a-man-walks-into-a-bar-by-rachel-blair-tickets-1290652058049?aff=oddtcreator>

Seating is limited. 19+ only.

Come early to treat yourself to dinner from Spice Trail's AMAZING menu, and stay a while after a talkback with the cast, hosted by director Cara Stelmaschuk!

In Conversation: An Exhibition of Works by Connie Freedy | Opening Reception

Date and Time: Saturday, April 26 1:30 pm - 3:30 pm

Address: 142 12th St W, Prince Albert, SK

Exhibition Title: In Conversation: An Exhibition of Works by Connie Freedy

Exhibition Dates: April 16 - June 21 2025

Opening Reception: Saturday April 26 2025, 1:30 PM

Connie Freedy's painting reflects her immense love for the world and the joy found in her surroundings. This exhibition, which includes works from the 1970s to the early 2000s, shows the trajectory of her artistic explorations. In early works, depictions of domestic spaces, landscape, and still lifes are imbued with narrative qualities, drawn from Connie's daily experiences and routines. Gestural forms and brilliant colour compositions express the pleasure of painting. The later works retain many of the immediate qualities of their predecessors, yet show great depth of awareness of regional political, social, and environmental concerns.

A central component of Connie's outlook is dialogue. In her paintings, diverse subjects co-exist in charming compositions. Bright plants, luscious fruits and vegetables, and spirited creatures from across the world live in delightful arrangements, where conversations amongst different subjects give rise to new ideas, understandings, and perspectives - all with a conscious view of global connections to local contexts.

Connie's paintings are marked by honesty, surprise, and empathy. They cross back and forth between openness and optimism, awareness and tension, and her personal spaces and exterior realms. In Conversation brings renewed attention to Connie Freedy's remarkable span of artwork, illustrating the rich, generative possibilities that result from a consistent and contemplative practice.

Curated by Jesse Campbell

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Connie Freedy was born in 1944 in Cutknife, Saskatchewan. Growing up on a farm, at a young age she developed an appreciation of the land, and a knowledge of food sources and preparation. She studied English at the University of Saskatchewan, earning two Bachelor of Arts degrees in 1967 and 1968. In 1979, she and her family lived in the south of France for one year, immersing themselves in French culture, food, and art. Connie then earned her Red Seal certification in cooking.

Connie worked as a children's art teacher at the Prince Albert Arts Centre in Prince Albert (now the Margo Fournier Arts Centre), as a tour guide in Fort Carlton Provincial Historic Park, and later as the co-owner and chef of Yellow Fender Coffee House & Eatery in Christopher Lake.

Connie's work has been exhibited in group and solo exhibitions in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Her work is represented in the collections of the Mann Art Gallery, SK Arts, Remai Modern (Saskatoon), and Dunlop Art Gallery (Regina).

Vancouver International Mountain Film Festival

Date and Time: Wednesday, April 30 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: EA Rawlinson Centre For The Arts, 142 12 St W, Prince Albert, SK

Proudly presented by the Malcolm J. Jenkins Family Foundation the Vancouver International Mountain Film Festival 2025 film lineup is packed with thought-provoking, action-inspiring mountain films celebrating climbing, snowsports, biking, the environment and more.

Proceeds from this event support the Outdoor Adventures Program at Prince Albert Collegiate (PACI). The Outdoor Adventures Program offers high-quality, experiential land-based learning opportunities for students in Grades 10 and 11. Through this program, students explore diverse landscapes across Saskatchewan, from the grasslands to the northern shield, engaging in activities and learning experiences that foster a deep connection to the natural world. These experiences provide lifelong skills and knowledge that extend far beyond the classroom.

Land-based and outdoor education provides significant benefits for students' academic, physical, and personal growth. The Outdoor Adventures Program at PACI harnesses these advantages to create lasting, positive impacts on student success. Engaging, hands-on experiences keep students motivated and on track for long-term success. Students in outdoor education programs are more likely to graduate and pursue further educational opportunities.
