Further Down The Road With Cadmus Delorme

Date and Time: Tuesday, May 2 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 142 12 Street West Prince Albert, SK

Last November we were given the opportunity to hear from one of our nation's most powerful voices. On Tuesday, May 2nd, Cadmus Delorme will return to continue the conversation on real truth and reconciliation, and share further insights on how we move forward together.

Included in this evening will be performances by the Ironswing Singers and the Northern Prairie Dancers. MC'd by Mitch Holash.

This event is free to attend, but please secure your ticket in advance. They are available at Canadian Tire and the EA Rawlinson Centre for the Arts. Organizations and businesses that want group tickets can get them from the Prince Albert Police Service (15th Street location). All tickets are first come, first serve.

This event is brought to you by the generous support of Malcolm Jenkins and Canadian Tire, the City of Prince Albert, the Prince Albert Municipal Cultural Action Plan, Sask Lotteries, SaskCulture, the Prince Albert Police Service, the Prince Albert Urban Indigenous Coalition, Communities Building Youth Futures Prince Albert (C BYFPA), and PA Fast Print.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

Date and Time: Wednesday, May 10 7:30 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: E. A. Rawlinson Centre of the Arts (142-12th Street West) Prince Albert, Sask

École St Mary High School invites the community to Upstage Productions' musical, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a reimagining of the Biblical story of Joseph, his father Jacob, eleven brothers and the coat of many colors. Told entirely through song, with the help of a main character Narrator, the musical follows preferred son, Joseph. After being sold into slavery by his brothers, Joseph gains the favour of the Egyptian noble Potiphar, but ends up in jail after refusing the advances of Potiphar's wife. While imprisoned, Joseph discovers his ability to interpret dreams and finds himself in front of the mighty, but troubled, Pharaoh. Joseph's solution to Egypt's famine elevates him to Pharaoh's right-hand man and reunites him with his family.

Show times at the E.A. Rawlinson Centre are Wednesday, May 10th – Saturday, May 13th at 7:30 p.m. Tickets cost $21.00 for adults and $15.75 for students and are available at the E.A. Rawlinson Box Office or by phoning 765-1270.

An Evening Of Magic And Entertainment For The Whole Family With Roger Boucher

Date and Time: Thursday, May 11 6:30 pm - 7:45 pm

Address: École Valois, 449 10th Street East Prince Albert, Sask

École Valois is having "An evening of magic and entertainment for the whole family with Roger Boucher" on Thursday May 11th at 6:30 pm in the school gymnasium (449 10th Street East). The school has a "Magic Club", and the students from this program will be assisting Roger in the performance as well.

All proceeds go towards the fundraising goal of $6,000 which will be used to purchase archery equipment for the school. A silent auction and 50/50 draw will also be happening with the event. The performance will be in French and is a great way for French immersion students to practice the language; since magic is a 'universal language' it will be fun for non-French speakers as well.

Tickets are $20/person (buy 3 get 1 free) and are available at Canadian Tire. Merci!

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

Date and Time: Saturday, May 13 7:30 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: E. A. Rawlinson Centre of the Arts (142-12th Street West) Prince Albert, Sask

École St Mary High School invites the community to Upstage Productions' musical, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a reimagining of the Biblical story of Joseph, his father Jacob, eleven brothers and the coat of many colors. Told entirely through song, with the help of a main character Narrator, the musical follows preferred son, Joseph. After being sold into slavery by his brothers, Joseph gains th e favour of the Egyptian noble Potiphar, but ends up in jail after refusing the advances of Potiphar's wife. While imprisoned, Joseph discovers his ability to interpret dreams and finds himself in front of the mighty, but troubled, Pharaoh. Joseph's solution to Egypt's famine elevates him to Pharaoh's right-hand man and reunites him with his family.

Show times at the E.A. Rawlinson Centre are Wednesday, May 10th – Saturday, May 13th at 7:30 p.m. Tickets cost $21.00 for adults and $15.75 for students and are available at the E.A. Rawlinson Box Office or by phoning 765-1270.
