Poetry Reading & Open Mic - The Spirit of Hope

Date and Time: Saturday, September 9 11:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: Memorial Square, 1084 Central Avenue, Prince Albert SK, S6V 7P3

In spring 2023, a series of poems based on the idea of "hope" were installed in downtown Prince Albert through the Hope Pop-up Poetry Project, spearheaded by local writer, Lynda Monahan . This project stemmed from the presence of the word "hope" throughout Prince Albert. For the last several years, locals have come across the word painted on stones, or written in snow and sand. The word seems to have become an unofficial emblem of the city.

The poems in the Hope Pop-Up Poetry Project were submitted by local emerging and established artists, and selected by Lynda Monahan. They range from meditations on personal life, to ruminations on what "hope" means for communities in Prince Albert, to descriptions of natural and urban spaces in the region.

On September 9th at 11:00 AM at Memorial Square (City Hall), we invite you to an outdoor poetry reading based on the pop-up project. Ten local writers will read their poems on "hope." Then, the mic will be open for anyone present to share their poetry that is inspired by "hope."

This event is free and open to the public. It is supported by the Municipal Cultural Action Plan and the City of Prince Albert.

Corb Lund: Solo Acoustic Tour at the EARC

Date and Time: Saturday, September 30 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 142 12 Street West, Prince Albert, SK

Corb Lund has received multiple CCMA, JUNO, and international award nominations and wins. A rural Albertan hailing from the foothills of the Rocky Mountains with a long family lineage of ranchers and rodeo people, Lund is about as authentic as they come. Embracing both his Western heritage and his indie rock past through his music, Lund has been known to filter a range of cowboy themes past and present through his unique lens - from rough-and-tumble tales of lawless frontier saloons to the somber realities of running a modern family ranch.

Most recently, Lund released Songs My Friends Wrote. The 10-song set features Lund putting his spin on some of his favorite songs written by close friends and world-class songwriters such as Hayes Carll, Todd Snider, Canadian Country Music Legend Ian Tyson, and more. Met with critical acclaim, Holler said in their 8.5 out of 10 Star review, “Lund unearths, dusts off and revives lost should-have-been classics, hopefully encouraging listeners to search out the original versions” while American Songwriter said, “Lund remains a singular artist, and the fact that he can take outside material without being affected by any dominating influence provides all the proof we needed.” No Depression said “...he and his band, the Hurtin’ Albertans, deliver lively, empathetic versions that will renew your appreciation for the songs you’re familiar with and pique your interest in the writers of those you’re not” while Glide Magazine said “...the appeal is unavoidable.”

With Songs My Friends Wrote, Lund won his 14th career Canadian Country Music Award in 2022. The album is the follow up to 2020’s critically acclaimed Agricultural Tragic, Lund’s first studio album of original material in 5 years, which earned him a CCMA in 2021 as well. Lund also recently had his debut on stage at the historic Grand Ole Opry.
