Address: 777-28th St. East Prince Albert, SK

Did you know that the second Sunday of September is recognized as National Grandparent's Day?! It's a great way to celebrate the importance that our Elders play in our personal lives, communities and our families. We have made this day one of our Mont St. Joseph Foundation's favorite days for 24 years and counting!!

Not only is this a fun-filled family day here at the Home, but it's a great way to get all of the family involved helping to raise funds for new and upgraded medical equipment, furnishings and programs for our 120 special care Residents who call Mont St. Joseph home.

The fun gets started at 2:30pm with our Ball Drop Raffle in Prime Ministers Park (across the road from the Home's front drive way) and you will want to make sure you are here to take in this one! Followed by a family Stroll around the building, live entertainment, fun and games for the kids (of all ages) and then we wind the day up with a FREE family BBQ!

So, what's the best way to get involved?

- Grab a Pledge Sheet from our Foundation Office and start collecting pledges for your Stroll-a-thon around the Home
- Donate online by clicking here.
- Join us for all the fun and games
- Adopt a Grandparent to help us make sure everyone is apart of the festivities

*Pledge Sheets can be turned into the Foundation Office anytime before or during our Grandparent's Day celebrations.

This fundraiser is so much more than the financial support that it contributes to making Mont St Joseph Home "Different". It is about our family, friends and local community members collaborating to create the amazing ambience and what truly makes our long term care home feel like a family and a "Home" for our 120 Residents and their families.

The Blanket Exercise is based on using Indigenous methodologies and the goal is to build understanding about our shared history as Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada by walking through pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. Everyone is actively involved as they step onto blankets that represent the land, and into the role of First Nations, Inuit and later Métis peoples. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

The Blanket Exercise itself takes about an hour and is followed by a talking circle which often requires at least another hour.

Art Abandonment - Hearts for Humanity

Date and Time: Saturday, September 28 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 4 - 3800 - 5th Avenue East, Prince Albert, SK

Art Abandonment – Hearts for Humanity

HeartSpace Clay studio is a place where the heart reclaims its joy through art. People come to learn about clay and stay for the community.

HeartSpace Clay studio will host an open house for interested citizens to tour and get a feel for what working with clay is about. Visitors can sample some treats from the candy bar while absorbing the atmosphere of the studio. For those who would like a hands on experience a project will be available, it is called Art Abandonment – Hearts for Humanity.

This activity builds on an initiative already in motion, Art Abandonment Prince Albert. The artist started Art Abandonment in Prince Albert, a number of years ago. The local project is based on a book of the same name written by a husband and wife artist team in British Columbia. The premise of art abandonment is to leave art, hidden in plain sight, around the community for strangers to find, simply to spread joy. A local printer prints and donates pink tags to attach to the abandoned art, to identify the PA Art Abandonment project.

Visitors to HeartSpace Clay studio will be able to paint and decorate small 3” clay hearts, attach an art abandonment card and abandon the art in their neighborhood. Enough blank hearts will be made so that participants can make a couple hearts each.

HeartSpace studio contributes to the heartbeat in the north by nurturing makers and by supporting the community with initiatives like Art Abandonment. The artist is always looking for ways to support her community and would be proud to contribute to 2024 Culture Days.
