David James & Big River at the EARC

Date and Time: Friday, October 6 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 142 12th Street West Prince Albert, SK

David James and Big River are often described as one of the most authentic Johnny Cash tribute shows touring today. Thousands of fans agree with those reviews, as they routinely sell out shows in venues large and small across the province.

ross Canada and the U.S.

James and his band look and sound like the legacy of the Man in Black, and when they step on stage, they live it. From the way Cash holds his guitar to the way he talks to his audience, the legendary musician lives again when James steps to the mike and says, “Hello – I’m almost Johnny Cash.”

Lunch & Learn: Managing Disabilities and the Duty to Accommodate: A Guide for HR Professionals

Date and Time: Monday, October 30 11:30 am - 2:00 pm

The duty to accommodate is one of the most challenging obligations placed on employers, and specifically, HR professionals. During this session, we will review an employer's legal duty to take reasonable steps to adjust rules, policies or practices to accommodate an employee's individual needs. This seminar will also provide Managers, Supervisors, HR professionals, and other workplace leaders with the tools to effectively manage requests for accommodation under The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018. This session is presented in partnership with MLT Aikins LLP.

Topics

In this seminar, we will discuss the following topics:

- The Legal Framework for Accommodation
 - Human Rights and Discrimination
 - What is a "Mental Disability"?
 - Duty to Accommodate
 - Undue Hardship
- An Employer's Right to Seek Medical Information
- Accommodation and Discipline
- Duty to Accommodate Myths
- Practical Tips for Accommodation in the Workplace

Learning Objectives

By the end of this session, attendees will be able to:

- Critically evaluate their organization's accommodation framework based upon key legal principle
- Understand accommodation principles in the workplace
- Effectively review disability accommodation requests and manage medical information throughout the accommodation process
- Avoid common pitfalls and potential liability

Continuing Professional Development (CPD): 2.0 CPD Hours
