Winter Festival QA Panel

Date and Time: Wednesday, October 1 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: 142 12th St W, Prince Albert, SK

Winter Festival Art Show & Sale Q&A Panel

Wednesday, October 1

6:00 PM

As we prepare for the 50th Annual Winter Festival Art Show & Sale this coming January–February, we’re hosting a special Q&A Panel to help artists get ready ahead of this year’s early registration period.

Bring along an artwork you’re considering entering—or simply come with your questions! This is your opportunity to connect directly with Interim Artistic Director Jesse Campbell, long-time Winter Festival supporter and celebrated local artist George Glenn, and the majority of our gallery staff.

We’ll discuss everything from entry requirements to category selections, presentation tips, and what the 50th anniversary year might have in store.

Details:

- In-person at the Mann Art Gallery
- Memberships will be available for purchase on the night (Member event)
- RSVP required so we can plan for attendance numbers
- We are looking into offering a Zoom option for those unable to join in person — please specify in your RSVP if you’d prefer to attend virtually

Come prepared to share your ideas, get feedback, and feel confident ahead of registration!

Beading Workshop with Marcy Friesen for Culture Days

Date and Time: Saturday, October 4 10:00 am - 12:30 pm

Address: 142 12th St W, Prince Albert, SK

Beading Workshop with Marcy Friesen Saturday, October 4 · 1–3 PM | Free to the Public

Join us for a special Culture Days event at the Mann Art Gallery—a hands-on beading workshop with artist Marcy Friesen.

Marcy Friesen, of Swampy Cree and Welsh ancestry, lives with her family on a mixed farm near Carrot River, Saskatchewan. She comes from a long line of traditional master beaders and creative makers, and has always felt a deep connection to creating. Through her business, Trapline Creations, Marcy began by crafting utilitarian pieces, but after visiting a modern art gallery in Saskatoon, her focus shifted toward creating thought-provoking “useless” art.

In her work, Marcy uses beads, leather, and furs in unexpected ways to spark conversations around mental health, racism, and residential schools. Over time, she’s discovered that her “useless” art has deep meaning and impact.

This workshop is an opportunity to learn beading techniques from a skilled artist, explore the cultural and personal stories behind the art, and try your hand at creating something uniquely your own.

All materials are provided, and no experience is necessary. Come connect, create, and be part of this inspiring Culture Days event.

Shoot the Breeze Opening Reception | Marcy Friesen

Date and Time: Saturday, October 25 1:30 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 142 12th St W, Prince Albert, SK

Shoot the Breeze: Marcy Friesen

October 16 – January 10, 2026

Opening Reception: Saturday, October 25 · 1:30PM

The Mann Art Gallery is proud to present Shoot the Breeze, a solo exhibition by artist Marcy Friesen.

Marcy Friesen's artwork is an extension of her life: she beads to share memories, to laugh, to heal, and to reflect friendships and family bonds. Shoot the Breeze is her latest body of work, showcasing her expansive practice of personal expression through beading. From sentimental stories steeped in her heart to the seemingly banal objects she finds around the house, Marcy's witty yet thoughtful transformations—through beading, sewing, installation, and photography—invite us into a vibrant worldview shaped by possibility, openness, and kindness.

The opening reception on Saturday, October 25 at 1:30PM will feature a conversation between Marcy Friesen and Ruth Cuthand, offering an engaging dialogue about creativity, storytelling, and the power of contemporary Indigenous art
