Wolf Willow & guests at Rock Trout Events

Date and Time: Friday, November 7 8:30 pm - 11:00 pm

Address: 903 Central Ave, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan

Wolf Willow is a twelve-piece band that sounds like what would happen “if Dick Dale had joined Loretta Lynn’s band and made a wall of sound album inside the Grand Ole Opry.” Soul of Slippery Butte, their new full length album, is the much-anticipated follow up to 2021’s critically praised Old Guitars & Shooting Stars. Old Guitars dove deep into Wolf Willow’s sensitive side—layered with lush strings and horns, the sweet orchestra sound defined this album and era of the band. Soul of Slippery Butte takes the best of Old Guitars, swaps the sensitivity for swagger, and combines pop-adjacent arrangements with compelling stories and timeless melodies.

Randi Lalonde: Space to Surface Opening Reception

Date and Time: Friday, November 14 12:00 pm - 2:30 pm

Address: 1010 Central Avenue, Prince Albert, SK

Randi Lalonde: Space to Surface

John V. Hicks Gallery

November 1 - 23, 2025

Opening Reception: Nov. 14th, 12PM

In Space to Surface, artist Randi Lalonde explores the quiet tension between representation and abstraction. Her works on paper and paintings strike a delicate balance, where legible images dissolve into fields of texture, colour, and gesture. Through her process, Lalonde conjures conversations between order and organic form, each surface treated with an almost artificial dew, as if the image might evaporate or transform at any moment.

Her practice unfolds slowly, like movement through space, an increase of pigment and matter over time. A tangible sense of rhythm and atmosphere anchors each work, inviting viewers to linger, to look closely and slowly. There is a meditative current running through her approach: no work is ever considered complete, but rather part of an ongoing dialogue with the landscapes and places that shape her.

Space to Surface exists in this in-between — between mark and meaning, between creation and environment — offering viewers a quiet space for contemplation and connection.

Fish, Beads and Useless Things: Free Art Day at the Mann

Date and Time: Saturday, November 15 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Address: 142 12th St W, Prince Albert, SK

Shoot the Breeze: Free Art Day at the Mann

Saturday, November 15 | 10 AM – 3 PM | Free Admission

Come “Shoot the Breeze” with us at the Mann Art Gallery! Inspired by artist Marcy Friesen’s current exhibition Shoot the Breeze, we’re hosting a free community art day full of creativity, conversation, and a touch of mischief.

What’s Happening: Visitors can drop in anytime between 10 AM and 3 PM to make art inspired by Marcy’s playful and thought-provoking works. You’ll have two creative paths to explore:

- Fishy Creations: Dive into some fish-themed art inspired by Marcy’s “smoked fish” works.
- Useless Art: Make something intentionally non-functional; a teacup covered in fur, a beaded glove on the inside, a single decorative shoe... the possibilities are endless! Bring a household item you’d like to transform into “useless” art, or use materials we have on hand.

This day is all about curiosity, humour, and creative freedom! Bring your friends, family, or just yourself, and spend some time making art for the joy of it.

Free admission, all materials provided (though bringing your own object for ‘useless art’ is encouraged!). We can’t wait to see what you come up with! Come make something gloriously impractical and wonderfully imaginative with us!

Radium Girls

Date and Time: Wednesday, November 19 7:30 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: 380 14th Street West

École St Mary High School invites the community to Upstage Productions' two-act play, "Radium Girls".

In 1926, radium was a miracle cure, Madame Curie an international celebrity, and luminous watches the latest rage—until the girls who painted them began to fall ill with a mysterious disease. Inspired by a true story, Radium Girls traces the efforts of Grace Fryer, a dial painter, as she fights for her day in court. Her chief adversary is her former employer, Arthur Roeder, an idealistic man who cannot bring himself to believe that the same element that shrinks tumors could have anything to do with the terrifying rash of illnesses among his employees. As the case goes on, however, Grace finds herself battling not just with the U.S. Radium Corporation, but with her own family and friends, who fear that her campaign for justice will backfire. Written with warmth and humor, Radium Girls is a fast-moving, highly theatrical ensemble piece for 9 to 10 actors, who play more than 30 parts—friends, co-workers, lovers, relatives, attorneys, scientists, consumer advocates, and myriad interested bystanders. Called a "powerful" and "engrossing" drama by critics, Radium Girls offers a wry, unflinching look at the peculiarly American obsessions with health, wealth, and the commercialization of science.

Showtimes at the Lecture Theatre at École St Mary High School are at 7:30 p.m. from Wednesday, November 19th – Saturday, November 22nd.

Tickets cost $12.00 for adults (ages 19 and over) and $8.00 for students (ages 18 years and under) and are available the main office or at the door (cash, digital payment).

Join us for an evening of great food, stories, and music- songwriter's round style. Featuring local songwriters Wade Fehr, Janaya McCallum, and Rob Macintosh, you can expect a personable, lighthearted atmosphere full of banter, original music, and fellowship at one of Prince Albert's most cozy and unassuming music venues- The Spice Trail. If you like folk, singer-songwriter, and country music- you'll love this laid back songwriter's round.

🎵 Friday, Nov 21st at 7:30pm at The Spice Trail

🎵 $20 cover at the door (limited capacity so come a bit early to secure your spot!)

🎵 Show starts at 7:30pm

More about the artists:

WADE FEHR has been writing songs and performing around Saskatchewan for the past 25 plus years. His music has spanned multiple genres and continues to evolve to this day. Wade has an artistic way of telling stories both lyrically and musically.

JANAYA MCCALLUM is a mother of two, fine artist, multi-instrumentalist, and award-winning singer-songwriter from Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. Having grown up in and toured for 15+ years with her 6-piece, travelling bluegrass family band (The Trudel Family), she eventually began writing her own music and began a folk-duo with her sister, Jolissa back in 2016 (Jay & Jo). Within these groups, she's released five albums altogether, one of which she produced herself, and many of which received awards including several Saskatchewan Country Music Awards (Group of the Year, Roots Album of the Year, Fiddler of the Year). McCallum's style is reminiscent of and inspired by the likes of Joni Mitchell, Joan Baez, Neil Young, and Alison Krauss.

ROB MACINTOSH is a Singer/Songwriter based out of Saskatoon Sk. Rob has been playing music for as long as he can remember. Born into music from his father, he began playing in various collaborations and bands throughout his childhood and teenage years in Prince Albert. Creating original music written as far back as 1996 shows a lifelong dedication to songwriting, creating and performing music.
